

3.1 Construction of the Signet

The proportions of the Signet are based on a square grid, a single module of which is 1/4 of the height of the cross element located at the visual representation of the letter 'G', inside the shield.

